

Impact Tests Notched Dimension Measuring Device

Picture is for reference only

Application

This instrument is a portable measuring instrument designed for the size measurement of notched specimens used in Pendulum Impact Tests. It is used for measuring notch depth, specimen width and thickness of impact specimens.

Technical Parameters

Measuring range	0-15 mm
Resolution	0.001 mm
Operating temperature	0-40℃
communication method	RS-232